Victoria School of Performing and Visual Arts 2008-2009

Principal's Message

This year has been filled with many challenges. We have lived in a construction zone, survived false fire alarms and seen the demolition of the favorite parts of our old school. We have also produced some of the best performances and stunning visual and new media art we have ever offered.

We are very excited as the new school is being built and some of the old school is being reconstructed, and with the anticipation of moving into a new space that will offer even greater opportunities to excel.

Victoria School is not just about the building, however; it is about the boundless energy students and staff exhibit as they embrace and celebrate the arts everyday.

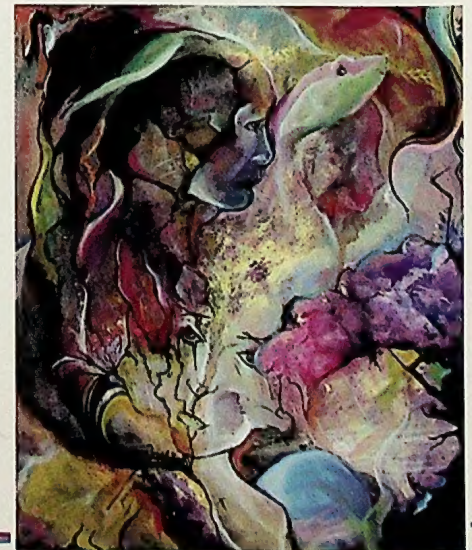

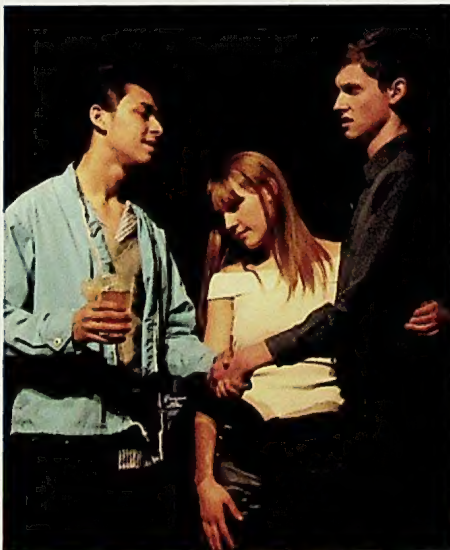

When I see the students work throughout the school, whether it is visually, or in a performance, it reinforces the importance of the arts in our daily lives.

All of these unique opportunities that Vic has to offer, make it a challenging, yet an inspiring place to be able to work.

It has been a great year and I am looking forward to the future.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John Beaton". The signature is stylized with a large, looping "J" and a cursive "Beaton".

John Beaton,
Principal

I thought this should be something ethereal.

"Life forms no logical patterns. It is haphazard and full of beauties and no one knows whether any of them will ever return."

Vic has left such a great impact on me. I only wish I'd left a greater impact on Vic. Time for a high level party, where we'll have tea and watch golf. I'll await my husband at Wonderland and ponder the Three Blind Mice. Time to question Clodhoppers, the rhythm of triphammering hearts, and a future as a drama queen. It's time for convictions greater than concrete and absurd criticisms. It's our time.

Sara

"Generally, by the time you are real, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out and you get loose in the joints and very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are real you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand."

"Route 66, a highway remember[ed] fondly because it conjures up a time of innocence before cigarettes gave people cancer and gasoline fumes burned a hole in the sky... When the only threats to the world were Soviet Russia, aggressive extraterrestrials, or perhaps the occasional mutant insect that had inadvertently fallen into a nuclear reactor and grown to five thousand times its original size and was intent on eating Chicago... a time that never existed."

If your vision starts to blur,
you're going too fast.
Look to the future;
learn from the past.
Hit it straight on;
become one with the air.
Avoid all trees;
they never fight fair.
That which is broken
can always be fixed.
Go out, go ahead;
learn new tricks.
A friend that is lost
can always be found.

Sometimes moving forward means
leaving something behind.
So leave with happiness, laughter,
and memories.
Leave with all the lessons that you
have learnt.
But most of all, leave knowing that
there is still so much more that you have to accomplish.
Believe in the beauty of your dreams. This is only the beginning.

What I've learned in the 8 years of being at Vic is:

1. If you obey all the rules, you miss out on all the fun.
2. Strength lies not in defence but in attack.
3. It has nothing to do with how hard you work. Life has to do with which butt you kiss.
4. If at first you don't succeed, pay someone to do it.

Peace out, Here's to the start of real life!

One dream, one soul, one prize,
One goal, one golden glance
of what should be, It's a kind of magic, One shaft of light that shows the way, No mortal man can win this day, It's a mind of your mind,

It's a challenging the doors of
time,

It's a kind of magic.

Life is not so much a bunch of time passing by as it is a collection of the best memories, and those have been right here at Vic, with all of you.

"Books! And cleverness! There are more important things- friendship and bravery!"

- Hermione Granger

"For me, Vic was more than just a school...it was like home. The classes were great, the teachers were amazing, and most of all the friends are forever. I'm very proud to be the last graduating class in the 'old Vic'. Congrats class of '09!"

I would like to give a shout out to my boys - Aaron, Lubinsky and Roger for being there through good times and bad. Danielle, Kris, Nikki, Sarah, Maryna and all that crew - thanks for the great parties and the good times. I can't forget about Sydney, Ariel, Justine, Levi and that crew.

I must say I had a good time at Vic every day for the last six years!

6 years at Vic in 75 words = impossible.

If I made you smile, you're welcome.

If I made you cry, I'm sorry. If I changed your life, chances are you've done the same.

Smithpants- Thanks for letting me learn everything but chemistry.

To all my friends: you know who you are, I couldn't have done this without you.

Sometimes life gets rough, and it'll always be that way. It just depends on how you take on the situation and handle it. You just have to remember that it's not about what you got, it's what you make of what you got. It's not about the high-end clothes or having the most friends, it's about what you made of yourself and who you're striving to be. People not only remember, but they also look up to the ones that never gave up and kept trying no matter what came their way. The ones that focused on being the better person without bringing others down just to get there.

Brittany

Leaving this school is like finishing a really good book, you don't want it to be done but no matter what, you are. Thank you to all the amazing people I've met: friends the people I can call family, and the teachers. Always remember to follow your dreams and trust the path life takes you on, no matter how hard it is. Thank you for all you've taught me Victoria School! Take a Bow!

What they say is really true; it does fly by. I took away everything I could from the "best years of my life", and now it's time to grow up. Thank you to those girls and boys who were there during the ups and downs. And what would life be without some REDMEN pride? One team, heart. Oh, and just remember that it's not what you do, it's HOW you do it. Stay fly, vic HIGH

A Second Term for Harper

After an unprecedented constitutional drama, a federal election is called and on November 14, 2008 Stephen Harper secures a second minority government.

Gov. Gen. Michaëlle Jean grants Prime Minister Harper's request to suspend (prorogue) Parliament.

NDP leader Jack Layton, Liberal leader Stéphane Dion and Bloc leader Gilles Duceppe sign a coalition in an effort to replace the minority Conservative government.

Michael Ignatieff replaces Stéphane Dion as federal leader of the Liberal Party.

Jean Charest becomes the first Quebec premier in more than half a century to win three consecutive mandates.

59.1% of Canadians voted in the Federal Election, the lowest since 2004. Only 56.5% of voters cast ballots in Quebec's provincial election.

Foreign Affairs Minister Maxime Bernier resigns over a security breach involving classified NATO documents left at the home of former girlfriend, Julie Couillard.

Barack Obama follows a presidential tradition and heads to Canada for his first international visit.
